Locally owned by tai chi/kung fu grandmaster Thomas Gohring, Kick Butt Coffee has been a hot spot for locals since 2008! From our single-origin coffee to fresh pastries and parfaits, everything we offer at Kick Butt is of the highest quality; our tacos are no different! We use fresh ingredients and small-batch cooking techniques to ensure maximum flavor and awesomeness. Whether you're looking to feed 10 or 100, Kick Butt has a kick butt solution to feed your group!

All tacos start with a fresh, local El Milagro tortilla. Fresh-cracked eggs, shredded cheddar, and crispy bacon or diced Hudson sausage make up the two top-selling tacos. On the veggie side, our in-house roasted red potatoes go into both the potato, egg, cheddar taco, as well as our homemade refried black bean, potato, cheddar taco. All taco orders include our delicious homemade salsa! As for yummys, they're bigger, bolder, and more butt-kicking than our standard tacos.
